

A major exporter of photovoltaic panels

Overview

The photovoltaic (PV) sector continues to dominate renewable energy markets, with China maintaining its stronghold as the world's leading exporter of solar panels. Today, China's share in all the manufacturing stages of solar panels (such as polysilicon, ingots, wafers, cells and modules) exceeds 80%. This is more than double China's share of global PV demand. As of Q3 2024, Chinese manufacturers accounted for over 80% of global PV module shipments, demonstrating remarkable vertical. The 10 photovoltaic module producers leading global output face falling prices, fierce competition, and growing manufacturing overcapacity. What kind of home do you live in?

The Shanghai-based company has 14 factories in China, Malaysia, Vietnam, and the US, and 57,000 employees - of whom 1,500 work in the firm's eight research and development. "Solar panel production" is often quoted as if it were a single, perfectly tracked statistic. In reality, the most consistent, comparable global series is published with a lag.
