a tropical paradise where 70% of electricity comes from. At its core, the system combines solar photovoltaic arrays with a flow battery storage setup that could power 15,000 homes. But here's the kicker—they're using retired EV batteries from Europe, giving old power packs new purpose under the African sun [ Global OTEC"s flagship project is the. Let's face it - when you're a tiny island nation like Sao Tome and Principe, every kilowatt-hour counts. Now imagine flipping the script with cutting-edge energy.
