

The power of the rooftop base station is turned off

Overview

The base should now be working again, confirm by setting its mode to "A" and tracking with it alone (the other base turned off). 7 and there was no light whatsoever again so i don't know. Is there a way to turn off and turn on the base station?

I can do this with my other cameras and that reconnects them just fine. You can release the button once it enumerates as a USB mass storage device. The drive will be called "CRP_DISABLED" and contain one file "firmware. The base station power light is permanent green The internet light is solid but then flashes 4 times all green. The Base Station will display different LED light colors to give you important information about your system at a glance. Please let us know if you're still having trouble!
